Wondering what to do next in life?

Working at L'Arche Tahoma Hope is an opportunity to experience employment differently. As a caregiver and friend to people living with and without intellectual disabilities, you will be invited to grow personally and professionally. Our unique work (and play!) environment allows each person, regardless of ability level, to recognize their own value in the world around us. By working at L'Arche Tahoma Hope, you are joining over 150 communities on 5 continents around the globe in working to change our communities. Apply today.
